EO C408.02 – VIEW A RE-ENACTMENT THAT DEMONSTRATES THE HISTORY OF DRILL

1. Performance: View a Re-Enactment That Demonstrates the History of Drill

2. Conditions:

   a. Given:

      (1) Re-enactment demonstrating the history of drill (live performance or video),

      (2) Supervision, and

      (3) Assistance as required.

   b. Denied: Nil.

   c. Environmental: Classroom or training area large enough to accommodate the entire group.

3. Standard: The cadet shall:

   a. view a re-enactment that demonstrates the history of drill; and

   b. participate in a group discussion comparing past military drill to current military drill.

4. Teaching Points: This EO offers an opportunity for the cadet to view and discuss a re-enactment that demonstrates the history of drill. This lesson shall be structured as follows:

   a. Brief the cadet, prior to the re-enactment, on the relevance of the history of drill, to include:

      (1) the purpose of drill on the battlefield; and

      (2) the evolution of drill throughout the years.

   b. View a re-enactment that demonstrates the history of drill.

   c. Conduct a group discussion in which the cadets discuss:

      (1) what they learned from the re-enactment;

      (2) what they felt was the most interesting aspect; and

      (3) what they found was different compared to drill today.

5. Time:

a.	Introduction / Conclusion:	10 min
b.	In-Class Activity / Field Trip:	60 min
c.	Group Discussion:	20 min

6. Substantiation:

   a. An in-class activity / field trip was chosen for TP 1 as it is an interactive way to stimulate interest in the history of drill.

   b. A group discussion was chosen for TP 2 as it allows the cadets to interact with their peers and share their knowledge and opinions about the history of drill. Sharing in the discussion encourages the cadets to examine their own thoughts and feelings and may prompt them to re-examine their previously held ideas. Participating in a group discussion improves the cadets' listening skills and team development.

7. References: Nil.

8. Training Aids:

   a. TV, as required, and

   b. DVD or VCR, as required.

9. Learning Aids: Nil.

10. Test Details: Nil.

11. Remarks:

   a. The historical drill re-enactment chosen can be an in-class activity (video or DVD) or a field trip (live performance).

   b. There is no instructional guide provided for this EO.
