EO MX01.01B – ATTEND A PRESENTATION BY A COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION

1. Performance: Attend a Presentation by a Community Organization

2. Conditions:

   a. Given:

      (1) Supervision, and

      (2) Assistance as required.

   b. Denied: Nil.

   c. Environmental: Classroom or training area large enough to accommodate the entire group.

3. Standard: The cadet shall attend a presentation by a community organization.

4. Teaching Points:

   a. Provide the guest speaker information about their audience (the cadets), including any particular interests that may be applicable. Ask the guest speaker to leave time for questions and answers. It may be helpful to have the cadets generate a list of what they would like to know or questions for the guest speaker in advance. Examples of topics the guest speaker may address include:

      (1) history of the community organization,

      (2) how citizens can become involved,

      (3) role within the community, and

      (4) examples of activities.

   b. Have the guest speaker provide any information they may wish to have included in their introduction.

   c. Collaborate with the guest speaker to provide them with any materials they may require (eg, projector, television, DVD player, microphone) and set up the room to suit their needs.

   d. Acquire a bottle of water and have the cadets prepare a thank-you card for the guest speaker.

   e. Arrange for a cadet(s) to introduce the guest speaker and for a cadet(s) to thank and present the card to the guest speaker.

   f. Have a cadet(s) welcome the guest speaker upon arrival, provide them with the bottle of water and assist them with any final preparation details, such as set-up of visual aids and orientation to the presentation room.

   g. Have a cadet(s) introduce the guest speaker.

   h. Have the cadets participate in the presentation, to include:

      (1) listening to the guest speaker’s presentation; and

      (2) a question-and-answer period.

   i. Have a cadet(s) thank the guest speaker on behalf of all cadets and present the thank-you card.

   j. After the guest speaker departs, have the cadets reflect on what they have learned. Potential activities include:

(1) Highlights. Have the cadets individually list the three most interesting or surprising things they have learned from the presentation. Have the cadets discuss these highlights with a partner or in small groups. If time permits, invite cadets to share highlights with the larger group.

(2) Reflective Questions. What did you learn about being a good Canadian citizen? What do you do in your daily life to be a good citizen? What are some simple actions you can do in your daily life to be a good citizen?

(3) Journal. Have the cadets write a journal entry about the presentation.

(4) Visual representation. Have the cadets create a visual representation of their experience.

5. Time: One session (3 periods) = 90 min.

6. Substantiation: An interactive lecture was chosen for this lesson as it is a fun and interactive way to build on the cadets' knowledge of citizenship.

7. References: Nil.

8. Training Aids:

a. Bottle of water, and

b. Any materials required by the guest speaker.

9. Learning Aids: Thank-you card materials.
